

NSSE Topical Module License Proposal

The National Survey of Student Engagement's (NSSE) surveys are copyrighted and the copyright is owned by The Trustees of Indiana University. Any use of survey items contained within The College Student Report or associated modules is prohibited without prior written permission from Indiana University.

"National Survey of Student Engagement", "NSSE", and the NSSE logo are registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. Except when citing the source of items, these elements may not be incorporated without permission in materials developed under this agreement, including but not limited to surveys, websites, reports, and promotional materials.

Please answer the following questions in as much detail as possible.

1. Identify the Topical Module(s) to be licensed:

- Academic Advising
- Civic Engagement
- Development of Transferable Skills
- Experiences with Writing
- Experiences with Information Literacy
- First-Year Experiences and Senior Transitions
- Global Learning
- Inclusiveness and Engagement with Cultural Diversity
- Learning with Technology

2. Only institutions that have participated in the full NSSE administration within the last three years are eligible to license topical modules. State the year your institution last participated (if unsure, use the Participating Institution Search on NSSE's website):

3. To whom will the survey be administered (i.e., class levels or programs of students surveyed)? If surveying students at multiple institutions, specify all campuses here:

4. State the maximum number who will be invited to complete the survey.

5. List your expected start and end dates for data collection.

6. Please provide a brief description of the intended use of your collected data (i.e., “tracking progress on improvements to advising services” or “obtaining sophomore and junior input on Global Learning”).
