

WHAT THIS SURVEY IS ABOUT

You are invited to answer a series of questions about your university experiences by completing the National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE). Information from this survey is used by faculty and administrators at your school to improve the undergraduate experience and by other higher education leaders and researchers.

After reading the information on this page, if you agree to take part in this survey, click the "Proceed to the Survey" button below.

SURVEY PARTICIPANTS

Survey participants are primarily first-year and senior bachelor's degree-seeking students at your school as well as other universities.

TAKING THE SURVEY

The survey asks you about your university experiences, how you spend your time, what you have gained from university, and your interactions with peers, faculty, and others. Filling out the questionnaire takes about 15 minutes. Your participation is completely voluntary. Declining participation or not completing the survey will not result in any penalty or loss of benefits.

SURVEY PARTNERS

This survey is conducted in a partnership between your school and the Indiana University Center for Postsecondary Research. The Center will send your survey responses to your school for institutional assessment and improvement.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Your school and the Center will make every effort to keep your responses confidential, although absolute confidentiality cannot be guaranteed. Neither your university nor the Center will make any public release of information associated with your name while using survey results for their intended purpose (to improve the college experience and conduct research), but personally identifiable responses may be inspected by university and government organizations when required by law. Your survey responses will be stored in the United States on a secure server.
