Welcome to the NSSE Webinar

Thank you for joining us. The Webinar will begin at 2pm EDT.

Some guidelines before we begin:

Sound:
• Please turn up your computer speakers or plug in your headphones to listen to the presentation. For best results, close all other applications as they may interfere with the audio feed for this webinar.
• What to do if you don’t hear anything:
  o Click on “Meeting” in left of dark grey tool bar at the top of the screen and select “Audio Setup Wizard.” Complete the first part of the Wizard, which ends with a speaker test, in order to ensure you are properly connected for webinar audio.
  o If this does not work, you may need to consult your technology support person. Since the Webinar is being recorded, you will be able to view the session on the NSSE Web site at a later day.

Using the Chat feature:
• Participants will be able to submit questions throughout the webinar using the Q&A window.
• The Chat window will be available throughout the presentation for participants to interact with presenters and with each other.

Publicizing the survey

Getting the word out to:

• Faculty
• Staff
• Students

Serves two purposes:

• Helps increase response rates and quality of your data
• Helps prepare these constituencies to eventually put that data to work!
Getting faculty on board

• Education about the survey and data it yields
• Classroom advocacy
• Go viral!
  – Influential faculty
  – Key committees
  – Who are the people on your campus that can get faculty interested in assessing student learning?

Art Center to Assess Level of Student Engagement

For the first time, Art Center College of Design will be participating in the National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE), a highly respected assessment tool utilized by hundreds of colleges and universities across the United States. Coordinated by the Division of Student Affairs, the web-based survey which is administered by the Indiana University Center for Postsecondary Research in cooperation with the Indiana University Center for Survey Research, will be launched this month. More than 300 graduating senior and first-year Art Center students will be invited and encouraged to participate. Students who complete the online survey will be eligible to win an ipod touch, an ipod shuffle, or a $25 gift certificate to the Student Store.

The National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE) is designed to obtain, on an annual basis, information from scores of colleges and universities nationwide about student participation in programs and activities that institutions provide for their learning and personal development. The results will provide an estimate of how undergraduates spend their time and what they gain from attending college. Survey items on The National Survey of Student Engagement represent empirically confirmed "good practices" in undergraduate education. That is, they reflect behaviors by students and institutions that are associated with desired outcomes of college. The 42-question NSSE survey benchmarks effective educational practice using five student behaviors and institutional characteristics that are known to have a positive effect on student success.

- Level of academic challenge
- Active and collaborative learning
- Student-faculty interaction
- Enriching educational experiences
- Supportive campus environment

Art Center like other participating colleges and universities will use data collected from this sample to identify aspects of the undergraduate experience inside and outside the classroom that can be improved. This information will be useful in learning more about how students spend their time and what they gain from their educational experience at Art Center.

As part of the NSSE project, Art Center College of Design has also joined the Association of Independent Colleges of Art and Design (AICAD) Consortium. The 2008 consortium consists of 18 AICAD member institutions. By participating in the consortium, Art Center will receive anonymous comparable data on the other consortium members and will benefit from receiving data generated from 20 customized questions with a special emphasis on the unique art and design educational mission and environment of the schools.

For more information on Art Center’s participation in NSSE, please contact ---, Director of Student Life, at ---, or ---, Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students, at ---.
Prepare a PowerPoint Presentation

Co-op Students

I met with the Co-op Program Director in early January and she has agreed to assist in the process of making Co-op students aware of the survey and to encourage their participation. She will target Co-op students on work term (an under-represented group last time) in particular.

Residence Students

I met with the Residence Life Director in early January and he has agreed to assist in the process of making Residence students aware of the survey and to encourage their participation. He suggested, and we are in the process of producing, “table tents” for the dining halls which will promote the survey.

Year I Courses

The program coordinator has developed a NSSE PowerPoint presentation for Year I courses. With the cooperation of the appropriate Associate Deans, this will be shown in virtually every Year I course.

Computer Labs

There is a link to the NSSE Year I PowerPoint presentation on the active desktop of each computer in all labs maintained by ITS (but not “external” labs).

Brock Press Advertisements

With the assistance of University Communications, a series of ads is being developed for the Brock Press. These will run during the period February 4th to March 28th (but not every week).
NSSE Promotional Items:

Use of the NSSE Logo

- Requesting Permission to use the NSSE logo
- Use must be IRB compliant
We have time now to take additional questions if you have them!
